

Triple Crown Treats

A healthy, baked cookie-type treat high in Omega 3's.

Feeding your horse a treat should not only make you feel good, but your horse as well. With Triple Crown Treats, you can now give horses a tasty reward with the same confidence you have when feeding them Triple Crown feeds. Triple Crown Treats are a healthy, baked cookie-type treat high in Omega-3 fatty acids derived from fish oil and flaxseed.

Triple Crown Treats are formulated by the same company that produces the Triple Crown line of equine diets. Fish oil is incorporated into the treats for a natural enhancement of Omega 3 (DHA/EPA), which has proven beneficial for improved hair coat on horses. Research has also proven that omega 3's aid in reduced inflammation for horses in exercise.
